A.A. World Services has announced a newly revised and redesigned "Young People A.A." pamphlet. The revised pamphlet features new stories by seven young A.A. members who share their experience, strength, and hope. With input and feedback from young A.A. members attending recent YPAA conferences, the pamphlet was redesigned with colorful illustrations crafted by one of our beloved Grapevine illustrators.

WCO expects to have copies of this new pamphlet in stock in the first week of October. Visit https://westsidecentraloffice.com/literature to schedule an appointment to purchase this pamphlet and any other A.A. Conference Approve literature that we have on hand.

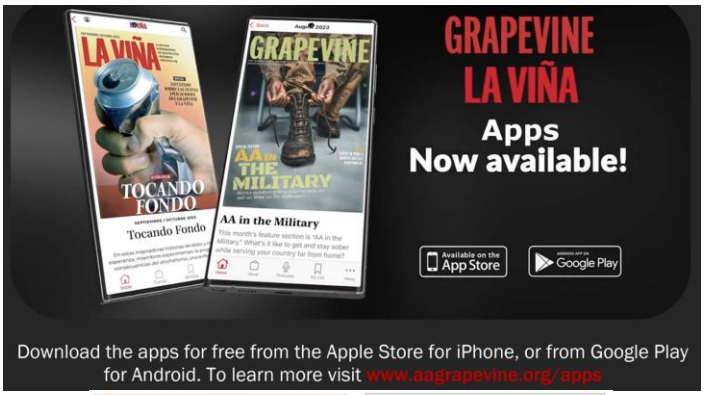
This Month in A.A. History

- September 1939 – A score or more of alcoholics apply the A.A. program and recover in Cleveland, Ohio. This sudden growth of A.A. in Cleveland proves that A.A. can grow to a great size. Also around this time, the Cleveland Plain Dealer newspaper would run a series of articles on A.A.
- September 30, 1939 - An article on A.A. titled Alcoholics and God appears in Liberty magazine. After publication of this article, Big Book sales saw an increase of several hundred and the early A.A. Newark Office received 800 pleas for help.
- September 1947 – The first A.A. group in Brazil takes shape.
- September 1947 – A.A. is started in the Eugene-Springfield Oregon area when eight members met at the YMCA on September 12, 1947.
- September 9, 1948 – The Astoria Alano Club opens its doors for the first time at 145 11th Street in Astoria, Oregon. The first group in Astoria, known as the Central Group, would meet at the Alano Club on Wednesdays and Saturdays at 8pm.
- September 1950 – The first meeting in Seaside, Oregon is held at the home of Earl E and his non-alcoholic wife Leona.
- September 1951 – The first Oregon A.A. Newsletter, titled "Our Baby", begins publication. The monthly newsletter would carry state as well as national A.A. news. Each group would receive a copy in the mail and additional copies were circulated through the central office in Portland. 500-600 copies were printed for each issue. The newsletter would cease publication after three years. The Oregon Area would begin publishing a second newsletter in April, 1960.
- September 2001 – In the wake of the September 11, 2001 attack on the World Trade Center in New York, exhausted A.A. members among firefighters, police, and clean - up crews form A.A. meetings at Ground Zero.
- September 2013 – WCO began accepting 7th Tradition contributions through its website.



Does your Home Group have a WCO Rep?

A Central Office Rep (CO Rep) serves as the liaison between the A.A. Group and the Westside Central Office (WCO). Co Reps attend the WCO business meeting and vote their group's conscience on Central Office matters. By electing a CO Rep, your group not only helps the Central Office help the alcoholic who still suffers, but your group also creates Ce position for a home group member. Our business meeting is held on the first Monday of the month, 7pm-8pm, online with Zoom. Email info@westsidecentraloffice.com for an invitation. We look forward to seeing your group's Co Rep there!
